
GRAY MATTER

Newsletter # 6.5 – June 2008

“This is the legend of Cassius Clay, the most beautiful fighter in the world today. He talks a great deal, and brags indeed-y, of a muscular punch that's incredibly speed-y. The fistic world was dull and waery, but a champ like Liston, things had to be dreary. Then someone with color and someone with dash, brought fight fans are runnin' with Cash. This brash young boxer is something to see and the heavyweight championship is his destiny. This kid's got a left, this kid's got a right, if he hit you once, you're asleep for the night.” (Muhammad Ali)

Muhammad Ali Interview: What's the thing you'd most like people to say about your life?
I'd like for them to say he took a few cups of love, he took one tablespoon of patience, one tablespoon teaspoon of generosity, one pint of kindness. He took one quart of laughter, one pinch of concern, and then, he mix willingness with happiness, he added lots of faith, and he stired it up well, then he spreads it over his span of a lifetime, and he served it to each and every deserving person he met.

There is one key difference between arrogance and confidence. Confident people “walk the talk”. BOTTOMLINE: TALK ALL YOU WANT, AS LONG AS YOU CAN BACK IT UP.